PHŌNÉ Records

Independent cultural label with strong authorial direction. Integral production, management and curation of independent Latin American music in dialogue with European and global circuits.

About the label

Founded in Santiago de Chile, PHŌNÉ Records produces conditions of existence for independent music: editorial frame, art direction, vinyl pressing and digital distribution. The label operates as infrastructure for a Latin American roster —Newen Afrobeat, Klaus B, ecamhi, Con.fusión and Rosario Lircay— and builds editorial bridges with European labels (OfficeHome Records, Aquarians) and booking agencies (Ludwig Sound, Heidelberg). The catalogue spans afrobeat, nu-jazz, neo-soul, hip hop, R&B and experimental composition.

Newen Afrobeat SANTIAGO, CHILE · 2009

AFROBEAT · AFROFUNK · WORLD MUSIC · 7 RELEASES PUBLISHED

Newen Afrobeat is an afrobeat band formed in Santiago, Chile, in 2009, and one of the most influential bands of the contemporary Latin American afrobeat scene. The band has built a proposal that combines the legacy of Fela Kuti's afrobeat with Latin American rhythms, jazz, funk and roots sounds, developing a distinctive identity marked by live energy, musical exploration and strong social and political content.

Con.fusión SANTIAGO, CHILE

HIP HOP · JAZZ · NEO SOUL · 7 RELEASES PUBLISHED

Con.fusión is the solo musical project of Catalina Aguilera Martínez, from Santiago, Chile: a proposal moving between hip hop, jazz and neosoul, incorporating vocal explorations that range from singing to rap and scat. Her trajectory begins in collaboration with producer Fat Jota, developing a sound close to lo-fi hip hop, later evolving towards the band Fat Lady, where she deepens a fusion between neosoul and rock from earlier compositions. She has participated in spaces such as Beatminds, the hip hop gathering led by Chilean beatmaker DJ Dacel, consolidating her presence in the scene.
