Klaus Brantmayer

BIOGRAPHY

Klaus B is a Santiago-based saxophonist, flutist and producer. His music crosses nu-jazz, hip-hop jazz and instrumental neo-soul with a wind phrasing that dialogues with J Dilla, organic grooves and contemporary jazz spirituality.

Active since 2021, his Bandcamp catalogue counts eight releases alternating atmospheric instrumentals with collaborative productions. The solo line starts with the singles Viento Radiante (2021) —flute funk with Diego Alarcón on keys, Iván Araya on bass and Tito Gevert on drums— and De Noche (2021), and deepens with El Secreto (2025) and Those Days Far Away (2025), the latter co-produced by Lister Rossel (Mr.Li, London) with MC Seven Star (Orlando) and MC Racecar (Paris).

The collaborative line converges in the extended duo Gestosimple & Klaus B: the LP Viaje Sin Tiempo (2024, twelve tracks with features by Fran Ri, DJ Dacel, Valentina Marinkovic, Cidtronyck, Celeste Shaw, Wagabond, Senciyo Samuel HuiZa and 22Ruzz) and the live EP Estudios Del Maipo: Live Session (2025), recorded in Cajón del Maipo with Ecamhi on trumpet. The mixtape Memorias (2025) closes a first chapter: fifteen pieces recorded over several years functioning as a personal archive of musical practice.

The usual tags across his catalogue —rap jazz, future jazz, future funk, instrumental neo-soul, scratching— point to a sensibility tributary to the post-Dilla school with flute and vocoder as timbral signatures. Pieces are built as a conversation between winds, keys, bass, organic drums and subtle processing, always keeping the groove at the front.

Within the PHŌNÉ ecosystem he appears on the LP Grietas by Newen Afrobeat (2024) as composer of Es la Vida; the single Quisiera Entender feat. Newen Afrobeat (2023) was produced after the Lagos tour with the band and features Newen's complete brass section, including Ecamhi on trumpet. Outside the label he collaborates with Gestosimple, Mr.Li, Cidtronyck, DJ Dacel, Valentina Marinkovic, Camila Fuentes, José Toledo, Pablo James and Diego Toro, among others.

He was awarded the 2026 Fondo de la Música to develop a new project in collaboration with PHŌNÉ Records. The plan includes identity development and artistic direction, rehearsals and recording between June and July 2026, and parallel production of visual pieces accompanying the music. It will be the artist's first delivery under the label.
